

Resources for Churches

Includes:

1. Responsive Relationship Video Series: Set of thirty (30) professionally filmed and edited online videos designed to equip dating, engaged, and married couples to improve and enhance their relationship and interaction patterns, each fifteen (15) to thirty (30) minutes in length, totaling over twelve (12) hours of engaging and instructive content taught by Dr. Don Welch, licensed marriage and family therapist, ordained pastor, and university professor with supplemental content provided by other guest experts and real-life couples ("Video Series").
2. Responsive Relationship Handbook: Downloadable, fillable PDF handbook filled with helpful graphics and summaries supporting the content covered in the Video Series ("Handbook").
3. Discussion Starter Questions: A list of questions to prompt discussion by groups and couples after viewing each video in the Video Series ("Video Discussion Starter Questions").
4. Group Facilitation Training: Thirty (30) minute online video taught by Dr. Welch to train facilitators of groups on the basic concepts of the Responsive Relationship Development Program and practical tools and methods for managing group discussions and sustaining the health of groups.
5. WRTA Certification Training: Two (2) hour online video training to prepare pastors and designated laypersons to use the Welch Responsive Temperament Assessment (WRTA) with individuals or couples they counsel or coach to guide them toward relationship improvement.

Bonus Items:

1. Group Formation and Sustainability Resources and Services – No additional cost
 - a. An implementation kit with instructions, tools, and resources to start, promote, sustain, and manage groups that will use the Licensed Materials as curriculum.
 - b. Periodic phone or video call consultation and/or email exchanges with WFTI to advise and guide CHURCH regarding use of Licensed Materials and group management.
2. Free Subscription to WFTI Words of Wisdom: Receive regular email communications from Dr. Welch with practical tips and techniques for maximizing the benefits of Licensed Materials and the Responsive Relationship Development Program.

Supplemental Materials and Services: For additional cost at regular or reduced rates

1. Welch Responsive Temperament Assessment (WRTA): On-line psychological assessment measuring a person's temperament and how they express their temperament in either responsive (productive) or reactive (unproductive) ways. Users are provided graphical displays of their results along with a comprehensive narrative report with their unique characteristics and tips for reducing reactivity and increasing responsiveness in their relationships.
2. Printed Version of Handbook: Full color, printed and bound version of the Responsive Relationship Handbook.
3. The Responsive Marriage Book: This ten chapter book is an "owner's manual" containing detailed instructions on how to operate a marriage in accordance with God's original design. It is filled with practical tools and methods, based on sound biblical principles and scientifically verified practices, that will help any couple, regardless of the condition of their current relationship, to build and sustain a thriving and deeply satisfying marriage. Each chapter ends with a set of discussion starter questions.
4. Professional Counseling Services: Available in some States from the Center for Enriching Relationships via remote video.
